Transitional Life Skills March News

This winter has been eventful in the Transitional Life Skills Program. Our entire program (including 3 freshman athletes!) learned and practiced nordic skiing on our CHRHS campus trails groomed by CHRHS Nordic Coach, Richard Stetson. On February 15th, we traveled to the Special Olympic Nordic Ski Championships in Waterville. We had so much fun! We were on the local news and we brought home 2 x 4th Place Ribbons, 6 x Bronze medals, 2 x Silver medals, & 6 x Gold medals!

After February break, we began our Unified Basketball season (schedule is listed below). We are so very excited to participate in Unified Sports again this year. A big thank you to our unified athletes and partners for preparing and training for the season! We are very proud to watch our students give it their all on the basketball court. As of this writing, we have one win so far and a rescheduled snow day game for March 18th (originally on the 3/3). We would love to fill the stands! Please come support our Unified Athletes and Partners!

Go Windjammers!

Unified Basketball Game Days Schedule:

March 1, 2022 4:00 HOME GAME against Lincoln Academy (we won!)

March 8, 2022 3:30 @ Mt.View AWAY GAME

March 10, 2022 4:00 HOME GAME against Medomak

March 17, 2022 4:00 HOME GAME against Mt. View

March 18, 2022 4:00 @ Belfast AWAY GAME

In other news, we are preparing our gear for spring hiking. With the help of Teens To Trails, and private donations, we will outfit our athletes with comfortable hiking shoes and crampons for the icy and muddy days this spring. If you have any gently used hiking boots, wool socks, hiking poles or crampons you would like to donate, please bring them to CHRHS with a note indicating "for TLS." We appreciate your support!

We are very pleased to share this news: One of our senior students is completing two apprenticeships this semester - a carpentry apprenticeship on Islesboro on Mondays and Tuesdays and 30 hours of apprenticeship at the Mid Coast Solid Waste Station, in addition to attending MCST. What amazing opportunities for this student! We are pleased this could be arranged through school, home, and local business partnering.

Looking ahead!

We are starting to plan for our annual Regional Special Olympic Track Meet on May 13th this year. We are excited to host this regional event again after a 2-year break. It is a fun day for athletes of all ages. We need student volunteers, so we hope you'll consider volunteering!

Visual & Performing Arts Department

CHRHS Presents

Aunt Leaf* for the 2022 Maine Drama Festival

CHRHS will be performing Aunt Leaf by Barbara Wiechmann as our entry in the 2022 Maine Drama Festival. Aunt Leaf is directed by Kailey Smith with technical direction by Tom Heath. The cast includes Seniors Alice Moskovitz, Izzy Kinney, and Aly Shook. Remaining cast includes Walker Hedrich, Maren Kinney, Lindsey Clifford, Rosie Fishman, Sam Skovran, Abigail Kohlstrom, Tessa Byrnes, and AJ Collins. Seniors Oliver Worner and Audrey Leavitt lead a production team that also includes Luke Nappa, Molly Blemaster, Ryan Southworth, Jocelyn Serrie, Alden Rousseau, Evelyn Thissell, Ethan Ratner, Freya Hurlburt, Fen Forand, Rowan Mahoney, Alyssa Lewis, and Grace Yanz.

From Dramatic Publishing: "Annabelle, a quiet 11-year-old, and her depressed and lonely great-aunt Leaf develop a secret ritual of storytelling. Each night the old lady sends the child into the woods to look for the ghost of her dead husband. Each night the girl brings back stories—made-up "proof" of her uncle—to cheer up the old woman. Annabelle's fibs grow into stories, and her stories grow into tall tales. As she wanders deeper into the forest each night, she soon comes to believe her own stories are true. The shared adventure, both dangerous and hopeful, serves as a dual passage for the child into adolescence and the old woman into a more peaceful death. A tale from the dark woods of the Hudson River Valley—and the darker woods of the imagination."

There will be a public performance on Tuesday, March 22nd at 6:00 pm in the Strom Auditorium. Tickets are $5 and may be purchased at the door or online at <https://bit.ly/leaftix>.

The 2022 Maine Drama Festival will take part on Friday, March 25th and Saturday, March 26th at 8 sites across Maine, including the Strom Auditorium. A schedule for the weekend will be published closer to the Festival, and will be available on the Maine Drama Festival Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/medramafest>.

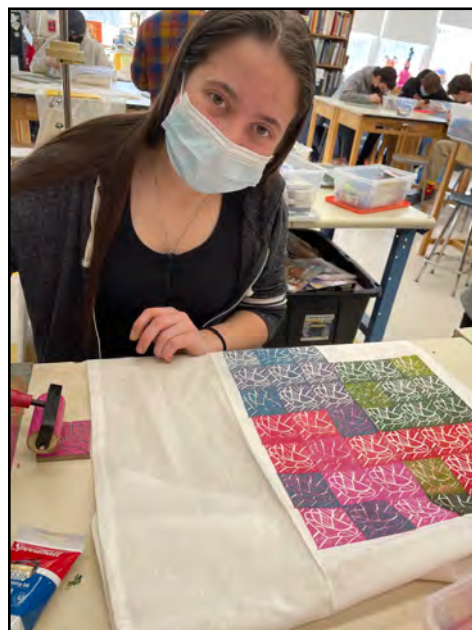

Printmaking Class

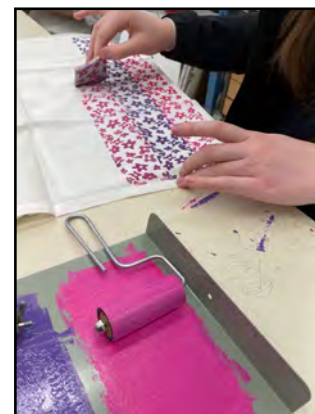

Carolyn Brown, Teacher

We've been working with relief printing, making small carved blocks, and using those to make repeat patterns, or modular designs.

After creating a variety of designs using the designs and stamp pads, students then had options for advanced work: using textile ink to print on tea towels or t-shirts; printing on clay for relief designs, and handcoloring prints on paper using watercolors and colored pencil.

Advanced Problems in Jewelry Class
Carolyn Brown, Teacher

We started the semester learning how to make custom bezels and set stones.

Students are working on both strip bezels and prong bezels, for geometric-shaped stones, and odd-shaped found objects, including seaglass.

Final projects include rings, pendants, and brooches, depending on student choice.

CHRS Tiny Art Show

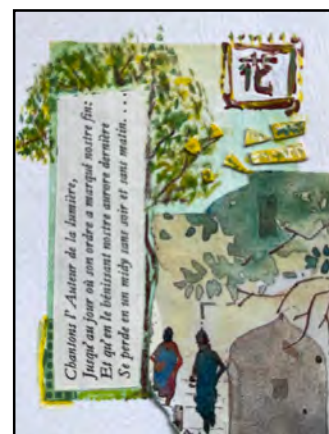

CHRS Art Club, Ms. Brown, and the ESVM Library staff have coordinated our First Annual Tiny Art Show in the library. All students and staff are welcome to submit artwork in any media, with the maximum size of 5"x5" (with some exceptions- we HAD to show Jon Moro's amazing baseball sculpture!)

In mid-March, we'll have People's Choice voting in several categories. The Tiny Art Show is for fun, school spirit, and community connections, and the People's Choice encourages everyone to take a close look at all the amazing talent in our community!

MARCH 2022

ESVM LIBRARY

NEWS

The Student Library Advisory Committee (SLACers) curated a selection of options for readers to take on a blind date! The potential reader only had the brief "teaser" on the cover of the wrapped book to go on when they made their selection!

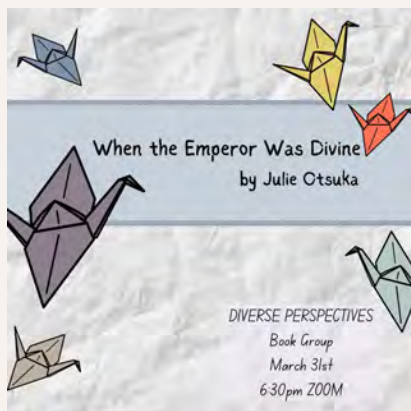

BLIND DATE

WITH A BOOK

Rockport is Blooming!

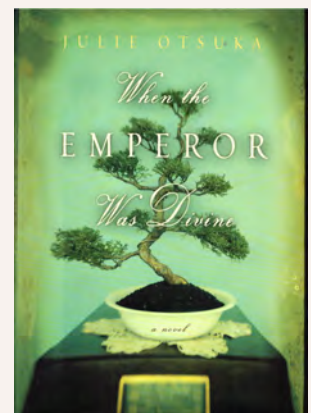

Rockport Public Library sponsored a fun mid-winter community craft in February: to collectively create two thousand and twenty-two flowers made of pipe cleaners! The pipe cleaner bundles were stationed all around town in businesses, as well as our two libraries. What a fun and cheerful way to brighten up our community. The flowers are now displayed in the Rockport Library.

Diverse Perspectives Book Club

Students, staff, and librarians meet and discuss books on a theme, by Zoom at 6:30pm. This month's book is "When The Emperor Was Divine," a book about the Japanese internment during World War II. Join us on March 31st!

MIDWINTER STRESS RE-DUCK-TION

Our SLACers wanted to boost our spirits in January with a theme of Stress Re-DUCK-tion in the ESVM Library! We had a guessing jar of tiny ducks, we had tiny stickers EVERY DAY (not just Tuesday), we had new, small jigsaw puzzles at the desk, and we had tiny ducks hidden all over the library! If you found a small duck, you could choose a prize from our bag of fidgets or a nice mechanical pencil. Then students would help us re-hide the ducks; we kept re-hiding them during the week until the prizes ran out. The SLACers painted these encouraging window signs for our whole community to enjoy.

Funding for this midwinter fun came from a generous donation to our library from J.J. Abrams.

We had tiny ducks hidden around the library for folks to find—for some fun prizes! And a guessing jar, also full of tiny ducks! The winner of the guessing jar was Brian Bland ('22). Since he's one of our SLACers we had to be absolutely SURE the count was correct and we were not showing favoritism. So we counted it four times!
